At the office of the state tuberculosis commission in the capitol, it has been figured that over four million died cross seals have been shipped to the various agencies throughout the state. The demands have been so great that it has been necessary for the commission to order another half million seals from the printer.

The largest local order was received from the Visiting Nurse Association of New Haven (over 100,000), the Public Health Association, Meriden, ordered 600,000; Visiting Nurse Association of Bridgeport, 500,000; Anti-

000; and Hartford Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, and the Tuberculosis Relief Society of New Britain, each received 250,000.

The sale will open all over the country the day after Thanksgiving, Dec.
1, and it is thought that there will be great competition, not only between the cities of the Union but between the states and towns of this state.

County Milkmen Rapidly Organizing

Lebanon Producers Will Get Together This Week—Is Only District in County Not Organized—County Agent Warner Starts Association in South Windham—Local Units to Affiliate With State Association—County Agent to Attend New England Milk Gathering in Springfield Tuesday.

That the milk producers of the county are rapidly organizing local associations and that by Friday night of this week every milk district in New London county will be fully organized was the statement made Sunday night by County agent P. C. Warner. Lebanon is now the only district unorganized and on Friday evening of this week they will get together and form a local unit to be affiliated with the affiliated with the Connecticut Milk Producers' association recently formed.

There is a local unit in Westchester, one in Colchester, one in Easton, and one in North Stonington, one in Preston, one in Berlin, which includes Franklin and Sprague, and one in Norwich.
The latter unit being confined to retailers rather than to shippers. Westchester has a local association which was organized with the assistance of County Agent Warner.

As the agent for Lebanon county has not yet arrived, County Agent Warner is making plans to visit the farmers in that county and has assisted in the forming of local associations in Hobbey and Gilead.

Monday (today) County Agent Warner will attend a county agents' meeting in Hartford where the committee on the organization of the state association will report. The state body is out for 400 stockholders, 25 of which have been secured in this county.

Tuesday the county agent will attend a meeting of New England county agents to be held in Springfield, when the milk question will be discussed.
At 5 o'clock the county agent will be in Stonington (Hobbey) in the interest of those who peddle their own milk.

Assistant County Agent Tilson is busy collecting samples from the dairy herds and in planning to present the results at the county committee to be held Saturday in the local meeting. He will be in Salem and Lyme Friday and in New London and Sprague on Saturday.

those who peddle their own milk.

sent the results at the county com-
meeting. He will be in Salem
and Lyme Friday and in New
